Special Guest: Cannons

INTRO

Welcome to The State of Synth, I'm groot, and I'm Neon Fawkes! Tonight our guest is Cannons

Were talking about Andy's Spaceship

- Cardboard spaceship
- Cooking segment
- Puppets
- Yes please

I've got dibs on his old sunset and grid setup.

Top Story (Dennis) (a1)

You've heard of "time inversion," but have you ever heard of music inversion? Apparently it's all part of a new technology being worked on by our scientists over at our Nightride FM research center. Yes, this really exists. For more on the story... Vosto Vlad.

Gibarian - Halcyon (San Diego)

Interview with Cannons:

- Introductions
- When childhood friends Ryan Clapham and Paul Davis met Michelle Joy.
- Love the vocals
- Describe your sound. Dreamy. Something you would hear that was accidentally left off the Drive soundtrack or even a Twin Peaks Episode. Jump across many genres, 70's grooves and 80's electro-funk described as "nu disco" and "future boogie".
