Special Guest: Pensacola Mist

INTRO

Welcome back to The State of Synth! I'm Groot, and I'm Neon Fawkes, and tonight we will be speaking with Pensacola Mist!

We are live, so if you are listening to the show, say hi in the chats!

Toronto chillsynth artist Nightflyer has released a new EP called “Monuments” which contains 3 tracks of smooth, lush, chill vibes. This track is called “Brainwave”, and you are listening to it here on NFM.i

Top Story (Dennis)

Darker Waves festival is announced with over 30 classic artists like Tears For Fears, New Order, The B-52s, The Human League, Soft Cell, Violent Femmes, and Kavinsky! Many people are wondering if this is a hoax. How can you fit this many artists into a one day event. Not only that, the poster for the show is a synthwave abomination. The artist decided to create each bands name in a random font, and apply different synth gradients and colours to each. Enough to make you puke!

We’ve got a fresh submission from German artist Tommy Countach courtesy of our Aztec dealer John. This track comes out Friday, and it’s called “Levitate”. You are listening to it here on NFM.

French artist Tommy ‘86 was cool enough to submit a single from his latest album “Let There Be Lights”. The whole album features tracks with the word “light” in their names, and it’s an incredible release. No surprise, he’s French right? This track is called “Under the Strobe Light”, and you are listening to it here on NFM.
