Let's kick things off with a fresh release from Vancouver Washington artist Odditee, aka Angel. He's been diligently working on his new EP and finally released it on Rosso Corsa Records. The titular track even got a play on NRW's youtube channel. I'm absolutely blown away by this release, and lo and behold, he can sing too! This is Odditee with the titular track of the EP "Everlasting", here on NFM.

So there I was, tuned into Dave808Turner's Twitch stream a few weeks ago and he played a track from Utah artists The Strike that was released last October. I can't believe this slipped under my radar. From the album "A Dream Through Open Eyes", this is The Strike with "Just Like Paradise", here on NFM.

Nothing beats a great collab from some dank artists, and this is the perfect example. Toronto artist Mellow Fields has teamed up with Ohio artist SFERRO for a cool beat. This is "Dank Disco", here on NFM.

You know it’s always a good time when UK artist L’Avenue releases a new L’Single. This time, the master of retro aesthetics and sounds features some sublime vocals from Elise Devane and sax from Alex Bone. This is “Touch” by L’Avenue, here on NFM.

Not to brag, but I just got back from an epic synthwave adventure in California where I met Outland Recordings artist Valley Lights both in San Diego and LA. We are going to try our best to get this guy on the show. Here’s his latest single released in Feb called “Alexandra”, and you are listening to it here on NFM.
